

FAQS

Does Shea travel to work with contestants?

Most sessions are held in New York City, however travel can be arranged per availability.

How many hours in the initial visit to learn the choreography?

Between 3-5 hours if it is a new routine. Existing routines choreographed by Shea can be scheduled for brush ups with a hourly rate. Shea will work on existing routines by someone else with a hourly rate and a two hour min.

Is videotaping allowed?

Yes. At the end of the session Shea will go through the routine for the video. Please bring a video camera.

Does Shea select music?

Yes Shea can if needed. However it's always best to have some ideas of your own to start with.

Is anyone allowed to watch the session?

No. All sessions are closed. However the last few minutes of each session are open to watch and video.

What is the closest airport?

LaGuardia is the closest, then JFK, followed by Newark. However there are buses that run from all airports to Grand Central Station (42nd Street & Madison on the East side of Manhattan) and Port Authority (42nd Street & Eighth Ave. on the West side of Manhattan).

What is Shea's availability?

Shea's schedule is always changing. When contacting Shea to schedule a session please have an idea of a few dates that you will be able to travel to NYC.

Which hotels are convenient to the location(s) of the sessions?

Marriott Marquis, Hotel Edison, Holiday Inn Crown Plaza, W Times Square, Hilton Garden Inn at W 35th St., Staybridge Suites Times Square, Four Points by Sheraton Midtown - Times Square, The Renaissance on W 35th Street, TRYP by Wyndham Times Square South, The New Yorker A Wyndham Hotel.

Deposit/ Cancellation

A deposit will be required to hold Shea's time and the studio slot. That deposit will not be returned if cancellation is made within two weeks of session.

There will be a cancellation fee of 50% of total amount if canceled within one week of the session and not immediately rebooked . Also the studio rental will need to be paid.

Where are choreography sessions held?

All choreography sessions will take place at rehearsal space in Midtown Manhattan, not at local dance studios like Broadway Dance Center or Steps on Broadway. The studio rental runs anywhere from $30-$55 an hour.

Does Shea edit the music?

Shea does the initial edit. If additional edits need to be done Shea can recommend someone to create a performance edit.

How do I contact Shea?

Shea can be contacted thru the contact tab on the website or at the email address SheaSullivanNYC@gmail.com.